THE CLOCK STRIKES MIDNIGHT AT MARVEL

Hail, Wednesday Warriors!

These October days may still be sunny but the nights are getting longer, the shop is all decked out for the season and this week's new launches are absolutely loaded with witches, vampires, demons, Hell, monsters, supernatural hunters, immortal Vikings, and Godzilla wandering into Oz. (makes me want to get back behind the DM's screen!)

And all that is before Marvel even strikes Midnight.

This week Marvel launches an entirely new Midnight horror universe with Midnight Spider-Man #1, Midnight Fantastic Four #1, and Midnight X-Men #1, all arriving together. These are not simply darker covers. Marvel is reimagining three of its biggest properties through a new horror lens, with body horror, vampires, mutant empires, cosmic dread, and our familiar heroes going full-tilt darker.

And before any true believer starts ask'in: no, we are not flinging open the doors at the stroke of midnight Tuesday! Marvel may have given retailers the green light for a midnight launch, but even the mightiest comic shop crew needs its rest. So fear not, faithful readers: all of the new Midnight titles will be waiting for you with our regular New Comic Book Day releases on Wednesday!

Marvel is hardly alone in stirring up trouble this week. DC summons a brand-new Demon #1 starring Etrigan, sends Jonah Hex chasing something unholy in Jonah Hex and the Shadow of Death #1, and gathers Raven, Swamp Thing, Constantine, Zatanna, Deadman, and others for DC's Quoth the Raven, Whatever #1. Meanwhile, our ABSOLUTE WATCH continues with Absolute Superman #24 and Absolute Green Lantern #19, with more Batman: Bad Seeds creeping through Gotham.

And beyond the Big Two, the cauldron is just as full. Sabrina the Teenage Witch #1 conjures up a new ongoing series just in time for Halloween, Hellboy is back in Hell in Nothing But Blood #1, the immortal Viking blood-feud continues in Kill All Immortals III #1, and Woodbrook's cuddliest serial killer returns for the Beneath the Trees Where Nobody Sees Halloween Special. Then, because apparently Oz did not already have enough problems, Godzilla is heading down the Yellow Brick Road in The Kaiju of Oz. Add G.I. Joe x Tomb Raider #1, Supernatural: Dean Winchester #1, Avengelyne #1, and the new Heavy Metal: Extreme Futurism special, and this week's shelves are looking wonderfully and deliciously strange.

New #1s, One-Shots & Premieres

See you Wednesday.

Featured Graphic Novels:

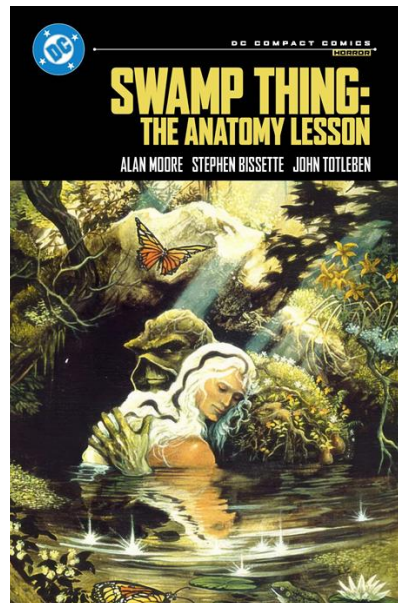

Swamp Thing: The Anatomy Lesson, DC Compact Comics Edition

This is a particularly good one.

For $9.99, DC's Compact Comics line collects the beginning of Alan Moore's legendary Swamp Thing run, including The Anatomy Lesson, one of the most influential horror stories in modern comics.

Moore, Stephen Bissette, John Totleben, Rick Veitch, and others helped redefine what mainstream comics could do with gothic horror, character, and literary storytelling.

If you have never read Alan Moore's Swamp Thing, this is an excellent and inexpensive place to begin.

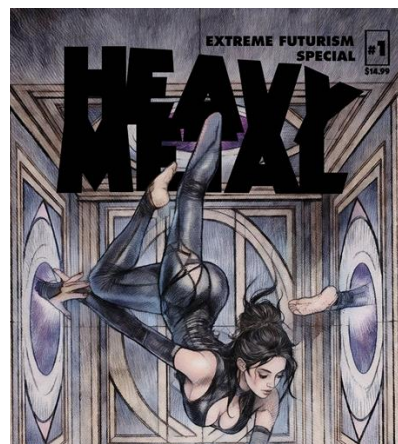

HEAVY METAL MAGAZINE SPECIAL EXTREME FUTURISM #1 (MR)

Retail: $14.99

Massive Publishing | MI - Heavy Metal
(W/A) Various

Heavy Metal undertakes its most ambitious project since the relaunch with their first annual Special looking at the topic of Extreme Futurism.

This innovative issue brings a focus on Biohacking,

Future War, Travel and Teleportation, and what lies Beyond Our Universe through a series of articles, illustrations, infographics and, of course, comics.

The magazine comes with two covers by Sedat Oezgen and Marco Turini; and features a brand-new framing sequence by acclaimed creator Xurxo G. Penalta.

New Achievement! You can read! The fact that you're coming back for Volume 2 suggests you read Volume 1. Good for you... or maybe you only looked at all the pretty pictures. Reward: Pop quiz! If you don't buy Volume 3 next, you fail!

The Goblin Copper Chopper is born! Atop their new set of wheels, Carl and Princess Donut ignite an all out meth war between the Goblins and Llamas. But more floors await!

Volume 2 of the New York Times, USA Today and Publisher's Weekly bestselling graphic novel adaptation of Dungeon Crawler Carl by Matt Dinniman. You know what's worse than breaking up with your girlfriend? Getting stuck on a sadistic alien game show with her cat.

After-School D&D Is Now on Fridays

Our After-School Dungeons & Dragons program is now offered on Thursdays AND Fridays. (just 3 seats left!)

This is a great weekly adventure for young players who want to build characters, roll dice, tell stories, make friends, and explore strange worlds after school.

Whether they are newer players or already know their way around a character sheet, D&D continues to be one of the best ways to practice imagination, teamwork, problem-solving, and heroic nonsense.

Welcome, New Subscribers!

We want to extend a special welcome to our new comic subscribers, especially those transferring over from other comic shops. We know changing stores can feel like a disruption to a long-running weekly ritual, and we truly appreciate the trust you are placing in us. Welcome to Other Worlds!

For all new and existing subscribers, we now invite you to begin using League of Comic Geeks. They are a well-organized site that gives subscribers a simpler way to manage their own title requests while giving us a clearer, more centralized system to review and sync those changes with our ordering process.

League of Comic Geeks

<https://leagueofcomicgeeks.com/stores>

User accounts are free. After creating an account, search for Other Worlds Games & Comics and send us a store connection request. Once we receive it, we can activate your connection and begin syncing your subscription requests.

Please note: you must already have an active subscriber account with us before we can activate you through League of Comic Geeks.

As we welcome more subscribers, please be patient while we adjust our order quantities to accommodate the increase in demand.

And one more benefit of your subscription: you are invited to our free monthly comics meetup, Coffee & Comics, where subscribers and fellow readers can get together, talk comics, share recommendations, and enjoy the community side of the hobby.

Subscriber Reminder

If you are a subscriber, your regular titles will be pulled and charges will run on Tuesdays before release, as usual. If you know your credit card is expired or about to, please contact us to update so you don't miss any of your ongoing titles.

If you would like to add any new titles from this newsletter or any other new series to your pull box, please let us know through League of Comic Geeks, via EMAIL (reply to this newsletter with box ## in subject line) or in-person as soon as possible.

'ABSOLUTE WATCH'

[all ad copy from publishers]

Two solid titles this week as we march toward the landmark #25 for the top 3, each with special "triptych" folding card stock covers.

Absolute Superman #24

Absolute Steel suits up!

Superman's hunt for Brainiac continues, and this week he recruits a new ally.

Jason Aaron continues expanding the Absolute Superman world while bringing another familiar DC figure into this altered universe.

Absolute Green Lantern #19

The Manhunter File is finally revealed. After a year and a half of questions, this issue promises some answers.

The Absolute Universe continues to be one of the biggest ongoing comic lines in comics, and in DC history. Stop in and check out our expanded shelves.

New DC Reusable Bag

In-store now:

Superman / Absolute Superman reusable bag

One side features classic Superman, the other Absolute Superman, with artwork by Dan Mora and Rafa Sandoval.

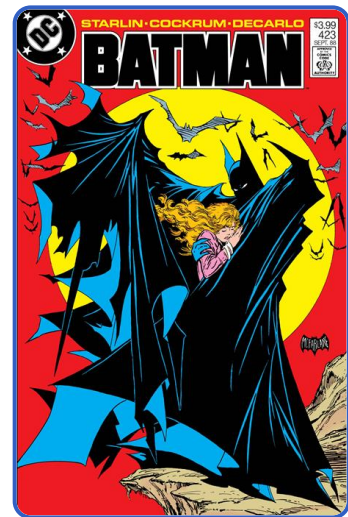

Because if you are buying Amazing Spider-Man #1000 plus ten variants, you may need a bigger bag.

Classic Comics Return – In Stock!

Batman #423 Facsimile Edition

A classic Batman issue returns with one of the most recognizable Todd McFarlane Batman covers ever produced.

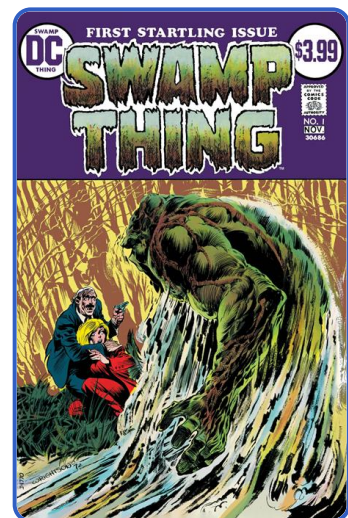

Three Gotham cops recount three very different encounters with Batman over the course of one evening.

Swamp Thing #1 Facsimile Edition

The legend begins again.

Len Wein and Bernie Wrightson's original Swamp Thing #1 returns in facsimile format, recreating the origin of Alec Holland and one of DC's most enduring horror characters.

COFFEE & COMICS

Saturday, November 7th
11AM - 12PM

Many thanks to Ed Keuhnel for stopping in to talk about his graphic novel WRESTLETOPIA!

And thanks also to Jeffrey and Xander for sharing some amazing full-size graphic books and comics panels.

Visit us at our next Coffee & Comics and share your favorite comic reads, artists or just to listen to others talk about their hobby. Coffee is on us!

[About] Join us for an hour each month for our Coffee & Comics meetup of deep and highly complex conversations, corrosive coffee, (the kind we like!) and a few fun giveaways. Plus, more swag, posters and if everyone remembers, a variant cover giveaway (we often get so talkative we forget about everything else).

"I HAVE FRIENDS EVERYWHERE"

Subscribers-only, Release-Day Reminder

[In Stan Lee's voice] To make sure your weekly stack of sensational stories is ready right when we open on Wednesdays, we assemble and process subscriptions the day before—so don't be surprised if you spot a charge on Tuesday!

But hold onto your capes! By the iron-clad laws of publishers and distributors, no new comics can be released before Wednesday morning—no exceptions, not even for your friendly neighborhood shop!

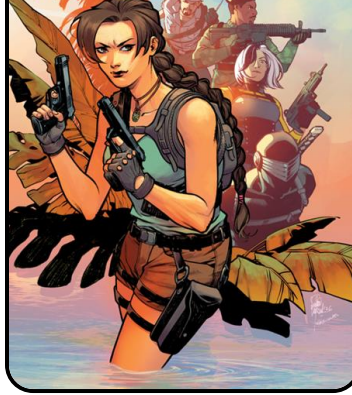

Thanks for being part of the adventure and helping us keep everything running smoother than a Silver Surfer hover-board! AND, REMEMBER THE PASSPHRASE (above) — Excelsior!

A man alive too long. Witness to centuries of Hell's victories. A wanderer with a shattered mind and a split soul. Following the mute face--a lost wizard--tortured by a voice from Hell, can Jason Blood protect our world and save his soul? Will the Demon Etrigan rise again? Superstar writer/artist James Harren creates a brand-new epic starring the mightiest demon of them all!

JONAH HEX AND THE SHADOW OF DEATH #1 (OF 6)

DC Comics
 (W/A/CA) Michael Walsh

MASTER OF HORROR MICHAEL WALSH TAKES JONAH HEX TO THE NEXT LEVEL! Welcome to the end of the Wild West. Welcome to the quiet life of a broken-down bounty hunter whose own story, one of bloodshed, pain, and guilt, ended long ago--or so he thought. In a small town called Ashcott, something evil has arrived. Something more dangerous than a gunslinger, more sinister than an outlaw, and older than the town it seeks to infect. Something from a world beyond the only one its victims have ever known. Something darker. Unfortunately for that evil, Jonah Hex has taken notice. Not just of the otherworldly entities surrounding his home or the child with mysterious abilities they seek to capture--but also of the chance to finally redeem himself. Join master of horror Michael Walsh (Exquisite Corpses) as he begins a terrifying new era of DC's most infamous bounty hunter!
